

MLA Jordan Sturdy named Opposition Critic for BC Hydro

WEST VANCOUVER (September 11, 2020) – BC Liberal Leader Andrew Wilkinson has named West Vancouver-Sea to Sky MLA Jordan Sturdy as the Official Opposition Critic for BC Hydro, as the BC Liberals made changes to critic roles yesterday to focus on holding John Horgan and his government to account in key areas as the NDP government struggles to respond to the challenges of COVID-19.

“I’m pleased to be named as the Official Opposition Critic for BC Hydro and work together with my BC Liberal colleagues to push John Horgan and the NDP to act on these important issues,” said Sturdy “Our team will continue to push the government to make decisions that help improve people’s lives as they deal with the COVID-19 pandemic. I’ll be continuing to advocate for the people here in West Vancouver-Sea to Sky on a daily basis, on top of holding this government to account for their poor treatment of the energy sector.”

The critic role changes announced yesterday build on the 13 letters and over 60 policy suggestions introduced by the BC Liberals over the last several months to help B.C. combat the effects of COVID-19 on people and the economy, and get the province back on track.

“Jordan has been a champion for his community for years, and I look forward to seeing him bring that same passion and dedication to making the NDP government accountable,” added

BC Liberal Leader Andrew Wilkinson. “Our approach has been shaped by conversations with thousands of British Columbians in every corner of the province as we developed ideas and solutions to help people, non-profits, and small businesses that are all struggling right now. The NDP government has been all talk and no action, so the changes we’ve made today highlight that and build upon our momentum as we continue to fight for a plan that provides opportunity for all of B.C.”
